A 2009 ISES Austin Scholarship of up to $1200 will be awarded to an eligible ISES Austin member for service and contributions to the chapter and industry from July 1, 2008 to June 1, 2009. Applications will be accepted from chapter members in good standing. The award is based on accumulated point totals. Recipients of scholarships in previous years are ineligible for a period of three years following his or her award.

On or before June 2, 2009 ISES-Austin will be accepting scholarship applications from Chapter members to attend the 2009 ISES International Eventworld Educational Conference in August 2009. Eventworld is the premiere continuing education event for the special events industry. Additional conference information can be found on www.ises.com.

The scholarship award is a reimbursement for ISES International Eventworld educational conference registration, hotel room charges and advance purchase air fare up to a $1200.00 maximum. Receipts and actual attendance at Eventworld 2009 will be required for reimbursement. The scholarship recipient is responsible for any expenses in excess of the specified scholarship maximum.

This scholarship recognizes outstanding service, and is a chapter investment in the development of future leaders. The scholarship recipient is required to attend educational sessions and write a newsletter article describing his or her Eventworld 2009 experience and to share with the chapter what was learned at the favorite session attended. The article must be submitted with receipts for reimbursement.

How to apply:

Completely and legibly enter your points data on the following form.

Winner's points are subject to verification. Save documentation of all reported points, including meeting receipts, name badges, explanations or other substantiating documentation.
